REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD.

The school board of Nelson herewith present their annual report.

SCHOOL No. 1.

The spring term was taught by Miss Myra A. Hobart, of Townshend, Vt. Miss Hobart is a teacher of experience and one who labors conscientiously for the advancement of the pupils in her care, but on account of poor health, she was unable to do as good work as we expected.

The fall term was taught by Miss Minnie B. Seaver, of Harrisville, whose reputation as a first-class teacher is established, and in this case was fully sustained. Great interest was shown in the work by both teacher and scholars and good progress was made.

The winter term was taught by Mrs. Sarah F. Tolman, of Nelson. A bond of love and sympathy seemed to exist between teacher and pupils which made work and study a pleasure instead of a task, therefore there could be but one result, that was, a successful school. The exercises examination day were especially worthy of mention.

SCHOOL No. 2.

The spring term was taught by Miss Florence C. Reynolds, of Greenfield. Miss Reynolds is a young teacher, but has some very good ideas, and with more experience will undoubtedly make a very successful one.

The fall term was begun by Miss Ina M. Mann, of Taunton, Mass., who taught two weeks, and at the end of that time, it was thought best to ask her to resign, as she seemed to have no idea how to govern a school of this kind.

After one week's vacation, Miss Eva M. Planche, of Lynn, Mass., took the school and finished the fall term and taught the winter one also. Miss Planche is a teacher who thoroughly understands her business, is a firm disciplinarian, and possesses a faculty of teaching and explaining so that the scholars cannot fail to learn. The progress made was very satisfactory.

Respectfully submitted,

FRED A. WILDER,
MRS. W. W. DUNN,
ROSETTE E. DAVIS,
School Board of Nelson.

REPORT OF BOARD OF HEALTH.

April 30, we were notified of a case of measles at M. M. Bailey's. We at once quarantined the house by posting a card on the door. Later on, two more cases were reported in the same family.

May 14, a case of diphtheria was reported to us by Dr. Cheever, at the house of Joseph Sweeney. We at once quarantined the house by posting a card. The case proved a mild one, and there were no more cases. On surveying the premises for the cause of sickness, we found in the cellar, stagnant water, rotten boards, potatoes, and no ventilation. We ordered the cellar windows opened and the cellar cleaned out, and there was no one else sick. The cards in each case were removed in due season.
